THEIR NEW CLUB HOUSE.

The Analostans Have a Gala Time Christening It.

It is estimated that there were fully 1,000 people present at the christening of the new club house of the Analostan Beat Club last evening. The guests of the club began assembling between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon and con-tinued to come until 7, when there was a reception and inspection. Following the reception came a parade, in which the Columbia and Potomac Clubs joined. All of the craft owned by these organizations, decorated with Japanese lanterns, were in line. When in good view of the guests at the beat-house there was a profuse display of rockets and Roman candles. The evening festivities closed with dancing.

The successful manner in which the affair was carried out reflects much craft on the following, who composed

THE DAILY CRITIC GOSSIP OF THE DIAMOND

HARTFORD AGAIN VICTORIOUS IN A ONE-SIDED CONTEST.

BETTER GET THEM TENNIS RACQUETS Then Perhaps Sullivan's Men Might Hit the Ball ... They Play in Balti.

The Washingtons ended the series with Hartford yesterday, and, as usual, sustained a defeat. Inability to hit Stails a delivery safely tells the whole story of the game. Only five hits were made by the Washington team, and of these Whistler made two, Underwood, ordan and Gleason each one. Only in the fourth inning were two hits made in s ceession. But the Washingtons had e bases on balls and one base on erors, so that eleven men reached first.

Only one scored, and two were retired in attempting to steal bases, while the remaining eight were left. Not a stolen base was made by the local team, a record it ought to be proud of. In fact, only two men undertook to steal a base, and both of them were easily thrown out. The team fielded excellently, but that only had the effect of keeping the Connecticut team's score town and made the defeat least the store. down, and made the defeat less than what it would otherwise have been.

Underwood pitched, and his delivery was sized up for eight hits. He gave three bases on balls. Gleason and O'Brien for the Washingtons and Fors-89.073 ter and Smith for the Hartfords carried off the fielding honors.

Luckily for the local team there is no game scheduled for to day, and for one day at least the Washington enthusiasts will not have to listen to the old, old story of defeat, unless it should lose the story of defeat, unless it should lose the exhibiton game at Trenton. For this much let us all be truly thankful. Sullivan is hardly likely to try to arrange an extra game with any of the teams with his club in its present razzle-dazzled shape. If he does we can expect nothing but defeat.

THE BALTIMORE GAMES. To-morrow the Washingtons will begin a series of three games with the Baltimores in that city. Barnie's team is now in second place and is playing good bail, while Washington is not. Whether we will succeed in taking any games from the Orioles is a question but it may be that the team has been saving itself for these games with the Baltimores. That is a charitable view of the situation. It is not altogether terms out by the facts, but it is a combined philosophical and charitable extianation of the team's work. Next Monday we shall know how near it comes to being a true explanation. Barnie has arranged for the playing of a game on Sunday, and if Sullivan's men make any kind of a showing to merrow and Saturday a large crowd will undoubtefly go over to the Sunday game to get a look at their wandering

The team will arrive here to morrow but it will hardly be in order for any rash mortal to tempt fate by asking Ted Sallivan the whys and wherefores of his toboggan playing. Sullivan is pretty meek man on most occasions but it won't do to go too far with him. The scores tell the story better than he can, and there are memories it were better not to recall.

SETTLING A LAW SUIT. The Pickett case was settled yester day by Pickett repaying the $200 which was advanced to him on account of salary and the payment to the Kanaas City Club, through its attorney, Colonel Rogers, a certain sum of mency, the amount of which has not been made public, in settlement and discontinuance of the injunction case. thuance of the injunction case curred in the matter.

The equity suit has been discontinued which dissolves the injunction and Pickett is now free to play with the Brotherhood club. Inasmuch as again securing Pickett's services gives the Piayers' club a strong one, they have decided not to press the suits against Myers, Thompson and Clementa, and those cases have also been discon-

If Pickett had taken the action he has, some months ago, it would have been better. But he held on to money that did not belong to him, and, to a certain extent, was sustained by the Brotherhood backers, and it was only when the courts decided that he must play in Kansas City, or not at all, that he decided, aided, no doubt, by the same people who sustained his former course, to try to make an honorable settlement. It will not help Pickett's reputation in the slightest, that he has done noder compulsion what he would not otherwise have done.

Court cage rather mixed Lawyer Moss up yesterday afternoon. He had : uvenile client down stairs named Charley Brown, who was about to be taken to the Reform School. Young Charley's mother thought before he Charley's mother thought before he went she would have his feet clad in new shoes and stockings, the rest of his wardrobe being in fairly good condition. She purchased the articles and requested Lawyer Moss to take them down stairs and give them to the lad. Suiting the action to the word he went and called for Charley Brown. A dusky little fellow popped his woolly head out of a cell and said. "Here I am, sir." Mr. Moss made no inquiries, but turned the shoes and stockings over, and the boy was as much tickled over them as a baby with a new rattle.
